Anyone wishing to camp on site must make a reservation directly with the campground. Kampfires has blocked off the trial dates within their reservation manager to ensure that NAE has first dibs on the F-Section camping sites for our events. This is the camping area located by the recreation field where the agility trial is held. Because the F-section sites are blocked they will not show available on the online booking system, so please give them a call or send an email to secure your reservation. Camping sites in other areas of the campground can be booked online directly from their website. The earlier you book the more you will save. The block of sites will be held up to 30 days prior to the event, then will be released to the general public. Please note, when placing your reservation a 50% deposit is required. This deposit is refundable up to 24 hours before the stay. A $10 processing fee is charged for any cancellation.

Please be aware that check-out time is 12pm. There is a check-out late option for $4.99 per hour that you may wish to take advantage of. Please be sure to confirm this when making your reservation. The trials are typically done sometime between 4pm and 5pm. Please note, during the off season Kampfires will check phone messages once daily and will return your calls by the next day, 802-254-2098. You can also email them at relax@kampfires.com.

ELECTRONICALLY SUBMITTING ENTRIES

To electronically submit your entries, please download the trial Entry Form (PDF). Fill in the form (one per dog), save a copy to your computer, and attach it to an e-mail sent to trialec@northeastagility.com. If possible, please include a scanned copy of your dog's permanent height card if I do not already have one on file for your dog. Scanned or photographed entries that you have filled out and signed by hand are also accepted.

ELECTRONICALLY SENT ENTRIES ARE NOT VALID UNTIL THEY ARE SIGNED. You will be required to sign an entry form waiver during check-in before your first run. If you choose, you can snail mail me your signed hardcopies before the closing date to avoid having to sign them at check in.

ELECTRONICALLY SENT ENTRIES ARE NOT VALID UNLESS ACCOMPANIED BY PAYMENT.

DOUBLE RUN FORMAT

Ever wish that you could have a do-over, or try out different handling on the same course? Now you can have your chance. Any classes offered twice in the same day will run the same course twice with no official walk-thru in between. We are using this format in order to drastically help ease the burden of course building 8 classes per day and 4 levels for each class on our chief course builder and our wonderful volunteers.

We will be offering a small break between round 1 and round 2 for any classes with less than 10 runs in order to give everyone a breather since our trials can be on the small side and we don't want anyone to feel rushed.
